Public Service Comm. Of SC
RE: docket #2010-146-WS

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have two companies as follows:
Jac-Lyn's Hallmark Shop,
Lake Wylie Car Wash, Ac

The River Hills SC news letter was delivered today. As I read it, I found out about the Public Service hearing to be held on June 27 in Columbia. The news letter said that testimony had to be reserved by June 3ed. It also said that I had received a letter about the hearing last week. I DID NOT.

Since I am to late to participate in person, I hope that the attached invoices can be included. They show a large variance in the reading of the meter, making budget planning a farce. The dollars may not be all that much, but in the gift store business, every nickel is precious.

On the invoice dated 04/29/2010, for $38.33, there is a credit, "Base Charge Adjustment for Prorated 2008 Billing". I don't find any notation of "Prorated" billing on invoices dated 2008.

Since there was NO Explanation of said credit, I called and learned nothing specific. I also asked why there was no credit on my other account. "they were working on all of the accounts and the credit will probably be on the next invoice." IT ISN'T!!

( As I understand it, the ORS requests for INDIVIDUAL SC operating costs by company/counties have not been sent to ORS. Will this Utilities Inc. oversight be brought up in the hearings? )

Sincerely,

John E. Allen
President
